

GC6ETJB
GS#19 – Wo wird guter Fußball gespielt?

English version:

- I.
When did the event happen the stadium was named for (iterative sum of the digits, one digit)?
- II.
The two broadcasting reporters let off a fireworks of jokes that evening. "For all those who tuned in late: the first goal has already fallen." In German, this expression is equivalent to "the first goal has already been scored". - What year did it happen (iterative sum of the digits, one digit)?
- III.
What is the name of the part of town where the stadium is situated (spelled out, sum of the digits of the added letter values)?
- IV.
How many goals scored the winning team in the inaugural match of the stadium?
- V.
Across the seats opposite the grandstand there are written four words. What is the sum of the digits of their added letter values?
- VI.
On the spot of this stadium for a long period of time there had existed a predecessor. What is the surname of the player who scored there last (letter value of the initial)?
- VII.
What year did the more successful of the two host clubs win the national championship for the first time (iterative sum of the digits, one digit)?
- VIII.
Here a certain gentleman had been team manager for a very long period of time. How many times did he win a European Cup with the host team?
- IX.
What year did the host club win a European Cup for the first time (iterative sum of the digits, one digit)?
- X.
What was the initial audience capacity (iterative sum of the digits, one digit)?
- XI.
What is the name of the part of town where the host club is from (sum of the digits of the added letter values)?
- XII.
The stadium is named for a person who a certain year became immortal. When did that blessing happen to him (iterative sum of the digits, one digit)?